

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK

FOR FAMILIES

Children's Book Week 2024 Participation Doc: No Rules. Just Read.

Celebrate Children's Book Week with your family and friends May 6-12, 2024.

RESOURCES FOR YOU

- Print bookmarks, activity sheets, a coloring page by Sophie Blackall, a create-your-own-bookmark template, and more to use at home.
- Create your own reading club with our CLUB NO RULES JUST READ resources.
- Check out #NoRulesJustRead on social media to see what other people are doing to celebrate.

ACTIVITY IDEAS FOR GROUPS LARGE AND SMALL

- Make a family goal of reading together once a day during Children's Book Week.
- Set a special goal for your reading club and give out prizes and badges at the end of the week.
- Check out our local event listings to see if there are any public events happening during the week in your area.
- If you do not see any Children's Book Week-specific events in your area, take a look at the activities and events offered by your local library and go to one.
- Have older siblings or family read to younger family members.
- Do a book-related activity every day during the week. Many of your favorite books and series have free activity materials online.
- Dress up as your favorite book characters and have a tea party.
- Listen to an audiobook while having a family meal.
- Cook a book-inspired recipe together.

SOCIAL MEDIA

- Record and post 60-second book reviews.
- Dress up as a book character and film a short video of that character being "interviewed" by other family/friends.
- Post photos or videos of people reading funny, interesting, or surprising materials. Ex: instruction manual, dictionary, the back of a cereal box
- Post photos or videos of people reading in funny places and positions.
- Don't forget to tag all your posts with #NoRulesJustRead.
