

EVERY CHILD A READER

BECOME A FRIEND OF EVERY CHILD A READER

SUMMARY

Since 2008, Every Child a Reader has provided millions of young people, teachers, librarians, and parents with original and engaging programming and educational materials that entertain and inform—all for free!

- 100% of all donations to Every Child a Reader go to producing and distributing high-quality materials, enabling book donations, and touring our National Ambassador of Young People’s Literature to schools and libraries.
- Our 501(c)(3) charity has garnered a GuideStar Gold level non-profit rating, a grant from the National Book Foundation as an essential literacy charity, and an Eric Carle Honors Angel Award.

OUR NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED PROGRAMS

Over 3,000 rural, suburban, and urban communities coast-to-coast participate in these programs every year:

- Children’s Book Week – celebrating 105 years in 2024, the longest-running literacy program in the nation
- The National Ambassador for Young People’s Literature program – co-sponsored with the Library of Congress
- Get Caught Reading – a poster program featuring role models “caught reading” fun books, now in its 25th year

As we look to increase even further the reach of our popular nationwide programs, we are pleased to invite individuals and organizations to be Friends of Every Child a Reader.
